

Valentine poems

Lovely Mum you do the dishes,
Lovely Mum you fulfill my wishes.
Lovely Dad you wash the car,
Lovely Dad you are a star.
Lovely Mum and Dad you're my family.
Lovely Mum you put me to bed,
And in the morning you wake me instead.

Lovely Mum you are,
Lovely Mum you are a star.
Lovely Mum you do the dishes,
Lovely Mum you blow me kisses.
Lovely Mum you are so lovely,
Lovely Mum you are so cuddly!!!

THINGS THAT HAVE CHANGED

Transport: In the olden days people had to walk from one place to another. Now we have cars, boats, aircraft, trains and trams to transport us from one place to another.

Outlaws: Outlaws have changed rapidly from highwaymen to gangsters and from pickpockets to thieves. By Leo

The Show!

Step right up, step right up to 3\4c's room of magic! You can see the tigers: they are Mark, Saracen, Chan, Nick, Ashley, Leo, Benedict, Matthew, Jordan, Dean, Chris, Simon and Tom. You can see the acrobats: Melanie, Amelia, Maddie, Shannon, Georgia, Maria, Elisha, Thara, Allara, SKYE, Maddison, Nicole and Grace. You can see Mrs Corr and the clown, Funny-bones - Jay. COME AND SEE THE SHOW! By Skye

THE GRAND PRIX

On the long weekend I went to the Grand Prix. I went in the stand in the front row, right opposite the starting line. When they start the F1 race they sit in the back of the car and wave to people. When Michael Schumacher came out I put my thumb up at him and he put his thumb back up at me. At the Grand Prix a navy helicopter came over and a navy jet came, it was faster than the speed of sound and just glided in the air really fast. The tickets cost $455 each! There was a F1 shop but every thing cost a lot so we left the shop. By Simon
