Wet Adventures with 1-2B

The day our house was swept away

One day I was in my room in my house, then I went to my window. I see spinning things. They are tornados. Oh no! Our house is swept away to the sea! What are we going to do? I climbed up on the roof.

'Are we floating away?'

'I don't know.' said Mum.

'Dad are we floating on the sea?'

'Yes,' said Dad, 'We are'.

You can see the dolphins. I like the dolphins, I see seals now, I pat the seals and now I see a seahorse. Here comes a tornado, we are on sea – now we are on land. Yahoo!

Wizzy and friends find gold

Once upon a time there was a little rain drop named Wizzy.

He had 6 friends named Wozzy, Fozzy, Fizzy, Pizzy, Tizzy and Tozzy.

One day when Wizzy was playing with his friends, Wizzy went to the top of the monkey bars and saw a rainbow far, far away. "Hey guys there's a rainbow up here!" he said.

"There's bound to be gold!" said Tozzy, so they all built a boat.

"How will we get to the rainbow in this?" asked Pizzy,

"We will wheel it to that river over there." Said Wizzy. So they wheeled it over to the river. Because the boat was fast they got there fast. When they got there they walked over the rainbow and there was no gold! "Where could it be?" asked Tozzy.

"Let's split up and look," said Wizzy. So they went off

"Found it!" said Wizzy, so they put it in the boat. Their mums were there so they put the pot of gold near the rainbow with their mums and hopped in the boat. Wizzy's mum had a camera,

"Go near the gold and I will take a picture."
