The Day I Found a Treasure Map

Once upon a time I went outside to play and I saw a piece of paper blow over the fence. When it landed on the ground I picked it up and turned it over and it was a treasure map. When mum wasn't looking I climbed over the fence and started to follow the treasure map. When I was half way there it was 12 o'clock and I had to be quick. When I was getting close to the treasure I saw a river full of crocodiles. Then I looked to the left and I saw a boat. So I walked to the left, hopped in the boat and paddled across. I had sailed across the river in the boat and all I had to do was walk across a bridge that wasn't strong. When I had walked across the bridge there was a guard but I brought a sword but when I poked him I realised that he was only made of cushions. I walked behind the cushions and saw the x. I got my shovel and started to dig after I had dug two metres I found the treasure and walked home. When I got home my mum asked, "where have you been?" and I said, "nowhere."

Pirates are evil people
It is all about the treasure
Really hard to win the battles
All day fight for treasure
Treasure is all about being a pirate
Every pirate should have a crew
See them fight all night

THE REVERSE

Five things that you would never see in the ocean would be:

- a TV,
- Mitcham PS,
- a classroom,
- an X-box
- doors.

Treasure is hard to find
Ropes on ships are really high
Education is easy to do about pirates
All day pirates look for treasure
Sometimes pirates have fights and die
Use canoes if you need
Rude pirates have a temper
Every day pirates look for treasure

The day I found a treasure map

Once upon a time I was at a park and I climbed a tree and I found a treasure map. I looked at it. It looked very old and so I climbed down the tree then I followed the map's directions. I walked all through the jungle then onto the beach and onto a boat then sailed away to Tasmania. I walked through some mud then onto the grass then I saw an X then I saw a shovel then I dug and dug until I said "I've found treasure."

The Day I Found a Treasure Map

Once upon a time Mum asked me to go to the shops and buy some bread and honey. My mum gave me five pence and a ten-dollar note. I went to the shops and bought some bread and honey, but on the way back I stopped to see a magnificent treasure map.

I checked to see if I had a hundred dollar note. I felt something that felt like paper. I pulled it out. I was so lucky! I dashed through the door. I snatched the treasure map before anyone could get it. I ran to the counter. I gave the man the hundred-dollar note. I dashed out of the door. I ran as fast as I could back home.

I dashed into the kitchen. My mum had just finished making some fresh blueberry muffins. I said "Mum! Mum! Can I follow the old rusty treasure map?" Mum said, "Yes you can, but first take one of these delicious blueberry muffins."

So I took one of the delicious blueberry muffins and followed the old rusty map. I passed lots and lots of dark spooky woods, until I came upon a huge gigantic mountain!!! It was as tall as a ten-story house!! And as wide as five schools!! I zigzagged on the huge gigantic mountain and at last I was at the top! I looked downwards. I saw a jungle! I had an idea! If I had a sled I could just slide down this huge gigantic mountain! Bang! There was a huge sled in front of my eyes! My wish came true.

I jumped into the sled! I slid down the huge gigantic mountain! Weeee!!! I shouted. At last the ride came to an end. I followed the huge bushy trees. I came upon an X! "X means treasure." I thought. I found a shovel. I used it to dig. I found a huge treasure chest. I opened the lid. I found the treasure!!!
