BULLIES

Bullies kick, bullies punch,
Bullies come to steal your lunch.

Bullies are scary, they make you cry.
Why do they do it? Why, why, why?

The answer, my friend, you'll eventually find,
Is they have some problem inside their mind,
That does not concern you or me,
But causes a catastrophe.

The moral of this poem
I must point out.
If you are sad, don't tease or shout,
But try making friends
and helping someone.
I'm sure you will find
it's much more fun.

MARY DONALDSON

WOW! What an amazing, inspiring lady she is! Mary Donaldson was born on the 5th February 1972 in Hobart, Tasmania and grew up in Taroona, a suburb of Hobart. In 2000 at the Sydney Olympics Mary met Prince Frederick who is Crown Prince of Denmark, which means that he is in line to be the next King. ... After that in a very speedy time, the couple fell deeply in love.

In October 2003, Mary Donaldson and Prince Frederick announced their engagement and then on the 4th May 2004 they finally tied the knot (which means to have the ceremony, to marry). After that I realised how amazing she really is. I would never have the courage to go to another country and lead another country as their crowned leader. Now Mary is princess and future queen of Denmark, Greenland and the Faroe Islands.

Remember: "You are whatever you want to be and no one can change that except you." (Renée Tanner)

YOUNG LEADERS' DAY

4th March, Vodafone Arena

What a fun train ride it was! Catherine, Elena, Joey, Ms Mamarella, Mrs Bevins and I all went there because we are leaders of the school.

There were five speakers who spoke to an amazing, noisy crowd of 4600 students. Michael Lee (the yoyo man), Tim Costello (World Vision), Wendy Orr (author of 27 books), Wesley Denning (from Big Brother and Totally Wild), and Matt Welsh (World Champion swimmer) came to talk to us.

It was a great day listening to others, sharing ideas, learning how to set goals and to help others.

FRIENDSHIP

True friends will always be there for each other,
Even your friend can be your father.
Friends are someone whom you trust,
And if enemies get you in trouble, run to you very fast.
And friends send messages to their friends.
A friend is to tell all your secrets and dreams.
When I'm happy you come to me and I'm never sad.
And sometimes you come to me when I'm bad.
I'm mad at you when you lie, but I'm still your friend.
You are ALWAYS going to be my friend!
